RUSH ACK HALE TO BLOUNTVILLE

Man Held for Alleged Murder of Lillie Davis Is Taken to Place of Safety.

of Safety.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BHISTOL, TENN., March 30.—Without waiting for a preliminary hearing, Ack Hale, who is charged with having assautted and murdered Lillie Davis, the Bristol girl, who was killed in the cometery, was this afternoon handcuffed and hurried out of Bristol to the county jail at Blountville. This was Hale here, and it was evidently a wise precaution that he was taken to Blountville. Hale showed signs of breaking down under the weight of the verdict of the coroner's jury, which said he was guilty of both murder and assault. He was very weak and pale when he was brought from his cell.

His sister, Mrs. Hawes Keebler, was here from Johnson City, and met him as he was brought out of the jail.
She created a scene by throwing her arms about her brother and weeping violently. It is quite probable that linde will waive his right to a pre-
